

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Scott County Bar Chooses Officers.—Isaac Petersberger was the unanimous choice of the Scott County Bar association yesterday for the office of president for the ensuing year. Henry H. Jebens was chosen vice president. Art Sampson and Joe Shorey were named to succeed themselves as secretary and treasurer respectively. Claus Ruyman made what is termed "his annual motion for the bar banquet" to be held in the near future. A committee of three to arrange for the big event will be named by the president later. After the routine business of the annual meeting was transacted the local attorneys adjourned to the front steps of the court house where a photographer was waiting to take their picture.

De Luxe Textile Assets Shipped.—One of Davenport's new industries which at one time was supposed to have a promising future completely severed its local connection yesterday when the physical assets of the De Luxe Textile company were loaded on five freight cars and shipped over the Burlington road to Providence, R. I.

Smoke-Filled Attic Causes Alarm.—Because a chimney at 628 West Fourth street had been torn off and a sheet of tin placed over the hole on a level with the roof, fire was thought to have started, when the attic filled with smoke. A run was made yesterday to 628 Belle avenue, where a chimney had caught fire. An overheated furnace at 712 LeClaire street caused a run of the department.

Dr. Cooper Lectures Before Woman's Club.—The modern city has not yet found itself. We have specialists in sanitation, in architecture, in finance, in education, but how few of us have tried to get the general bearing of the manifold life of the community as it affects the home," said Dr. John Wallace Cooper, pastor of the Unitarian church, in a most interesting address on "The Housing Problem" which he gave before the Civics department of the Davenport Woman's club at the public library club rooms. "It is high time," continued Dr. Cooper, "to ask ourselves what is the effect on life and character of the industrial and social changes through which we are passing. The first and the most obvious fact about this home which we are studying—be it the house on the alley or the more elaborate apartment on the avenue—is that it is too small. The average family can stand up in its home; by free use of ingenious devices its members sleep in it; they cannot make merry in it; they cannot safely be seriously ill in it; they cannot secure privacy. The primary function of the home is to give protection; this home offers but a frail barrier against the social elements; the individual may ignore his neighbors, but they are at his elbows, jostling, intruding, interfering, determining his life in a thousand ways, and doing it brutally because it is by an impersonal process."

Ford Fund to Benefit Davenporters.—Davenport employees of the Ford Motor company are naturally pleased with the announcement which comes from the headquarters in Detroit, stating the company has set aside a fund of $10,000,000 for distribution among the employees of the concern. It will be given out in the form of increased wages and in many cases will amount to doubling the wages now received by the workers.

In District Court.—A motion for security for costs was filed for the defendant by Attorney Henry Vollmer in the case of Jessa M. Horner against Wm. Haase and others. The answer of J. N. Reimers, one of the defendants in the suit of the Mueller Lumber Co. against H. L. Hagermann and others, was filed.

Lane and Waterman, Attorneys for the defendant company, filed a motion to strike from the plaintiff's petition in the case of Mary E. Heimick against the D. R. I. & N. W. Ry. company. An amendment to the plaintiff's motion was filed by Attorneys Sharon and Higgins in the case of B. E. Buck- ley against the Central Film Service company. The answer of R. Claussen, one of the defendants in the case of the Mueller Lumber company, against H. L. Hagermann and others, was filed yesterday.

Teachers' Club to Bring Distinguished Lecturer.—The Davenport Teachers' club will bring Ernest K. Coulter, founder of the Big Brother movement, and clerk of the world's largest children's court of New York City, for a lecture of Monday evening, Feb. 16, in the high school auditorium. Mr. Coulter will speak on "Citizens of Tomorrow." This is the first visit to the west of the distinguished lawyer whose work in the juvenile courts of New York has made his name known all over the civilized world.

Father O'Neill Transferred.—Rev. J. A. O'Neill, for four years a member of the faculty of St. Ambrose college, has been appointed by Bishop Davis to the pastorate of the Catholic church at Nichols, Iowa. Father O'Neill will remain at the college for several weeks until his successor on the faculty is appointed. In the meantime he will officiate at Nichols Sundays. Father O'Neill has acted as master of discipline and as master of athletics. It is to his efforts that the reputation of the institution in athletics is ascribed. As master of discipline Father O'Neill will be succeeded by Rev. W. L. Adrian. Athletics henceforth will be in charge of a faculty board of three members, consisting of Rev. W. L. Hannon, Rev. W. L. Adrian and Rev. Henry Takkenburg. Father Takkenburg will act as secretary and treasurer of the board. The president and vice president of the students' athletic association will be advisory members of the board. The departure of Father O'Neill will be greatly regretted by the students and alumni with whom he was most popular.

Short Change Man Sentenced.—Charged with larceny and alleged to have endeavored to "pull a short change trick" at the office of Dr. Neufeld, Charles Fagenberg was sent to jail for 15 days by Magistrate Rodewig. It is claimed that Fagenberg was sent to the doctor's office with $12 to pay a bill for another man. He offered the office girl $11 and insisted that he be given a receipt for $12. He finally beat a hasty retreat with a dollar bill.

Greek Taken at Sioux City.—Anton Catsonis, wanted in Davenport on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences, was apprehended in Sioux City. A telegram received by Chief Schramm stated that Catsonis is being detained by the Sioux City police as a witness in an important case at that city. Chief Schramm had wired the Sioux City police to hold the man. Catsonis will probably not be brought back to Davenport until the Sioux City authorities are through with him. Catsonis and another local Greek were proprietors of a coffee house. The partnership dissolved, and it is claimed Catsonis disposed of his interest to two different Greeks, neither of whom knew the other had been a purchaser.

St. Paul's Church Council Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the council of St. Paul's English Lutheran church was held Monday night in the pastor's study at the church when it was decided to join the Every Member Congress, the national organization which under the Layman's missionary movement will meet in March. Henry Mohl financial secretary of the church tendered his resignation and Frank A. Johnson was elected to take his place. Otto Hamann was made assistant financial secretary.

Obituary Record.—The body of Florence Bennett, who died in Kankakee, Ill., arrived in Davenport yesterday and was taken to the Boies funeral chapel, from where the funeral was held at 1:30 o'clock with committal services at the grave in Oakdale cemetery. Rev. L. A. Parr of Edwards Congregational church officiated at the burial.

A dispatch received from Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday conveys news of the death of Mrs. Louise Johnson, mother of Mrs. A. C. Rittman of Davenport, which occurred Monday. Mrs. Johnson was 76 years old at the time of death.

GUAYMAS, HUERTA'S LAST STRONGHOLD IN NORTH, TO BE ATTACKED

Top, the City of Guaymas. Bottom, federal infantry on way to guard the approach to the town.

The city of Guaymas, on the Gulf of California, is at present the only city in northern Mexico in the hands of Carranza, the commander-in-chief of the rebels, as the celebration of his 65 birthday last week, laid plans for the insurgent campaign to be pressed against Guaymas, which is being held so stubbornly by General Pedro J. Ojeda's federalists. The entire first regiment of cavalry are now enroute from Carbo, Sonora, for Guaymas, to join the 2,000 rebel infantrymen on the outskirts of the city.

DAVENPORT MAY PAVE ROADWAYS

Plan for Improvement of Approaches Meets With Approval of Organization.

Paving of a number of the roads leading into Davenport is a work which bids fair to be undertaken by that city, perhaps this year. An outline of such an undertaking is before the city council and has been endorsed by such organizations as the Davenport Automobile club, Commercial club, Greater Davenport committee and the Rotary club.

The demand of the business men is equally as strong. Considering these facts it is believed the city aldermen will grant the request.

A committee to confer with the council on this proposition was appointed at the regular weekly meeting of the Greater Davenport committee at noon yesterday as follows: J. C. Hall, Fred Henningbaum and M. Landauer.

President Fred Wernentin, Jr. of the Commercial club has appointed the following committee which will also take part in the conference as follows: A. F. Dawson, John Schaefer, Dr. W. D. Carroll, President Fred Wernentin and Secretary I. C. Norwood.
